

consilio et animis

The law firm "Breahnă, Scăunașu & Partners" is specialized in providing legal, integrated consultancy, assistance and representation services in business law, communication law and other related matters.

"Breahnă, Scăunașu & Partners" works in accordance with the principles of efficiency and celerity, making a duty of honor the promptly solving of its clients' requests. The experience of the partners, achieved in more than 14 years, offers, once again, a guarantee for the professionalism and thoroughness of the Law Firm "Breahnă, Scăunașu & Partners" and of its lawyers.

Legal services. Principles

*permanent reference towards the evolution and dynamics of the legislation and judicial practice.

*safety and celerity in conducting current activities.

*ensuring optimal environment in terms of legal assistance for the implementation, development and performance of businesses and investments.

*complete and accurate legal services, by informing our clients about the realities, limits and risks that should be assumed in a given legal relation.

*ensuring the legal protection of Romanian nationals in the EU, European and Asian regions and of foreigners in Romania.

preventing disputes through specialized legal counseling, protecting the rights, liberties and interests of the client by properly exercising their procedural rights

The working method of our firm, assumed by gained theoretical and practical experience, requires a multidisciplinary approach of the law, and for this purpose, together with the legal sciences, are called upon to play a significant role in solving our clients' problems complementary sciences, such as political economy, accounting, finance and taxation, communication theory, public relations, administrative science, management, marketing, statistics, human resources and information technology.

In order to ensure the certainty and celerity for completing the given legal services, the law firm has concluded partnerships with public notaries, court enforcement officers, legal experts, authorized translators, attorneys in most counties, as well as foreign law firms.

ATTORNEYS. EXPERIENCE

The experience of our partners has conducted to the fulfillment of consultancy, assistance and representation activities for a significant number of clients, mostly in the private sector, Romanian and foreign, large, small or medium businesses, private legal persons or public local authorities, associations and foundations, private persons, but also state clients.

We have accomplished high-quality professional services in projects related to the capital market, banking sector, IT and telecommunications transactions, import-export activities, foreign investments, mergers and acquisitions, commercial relations and obligations.

In the process of outsourcing legal services, we offer a special attention to current commercial operations in which the companies to whom we have provided permanent legal assistance are engaged, establishing functional working procedures with the financial and human resources departments of our clients' business.

A special experience has been gained from representing Romanian and foreign clients in front of arbitration institutions or judicial courts, in commercial, banking or tax litigations concerning the infringement of intellectual property rights, real estate, labor law or administrative law.

Recent successes obtained in transportation and customs law and also in matters of image protection, strengthens the position of the law firm "Breahnă, Scăunașu & Partners" and of its partners on the market of legal services.

PRACTICE AREAS

Business Law • Legal Status of Companies • Tax Law • Labor relations • Intellectual Property • Competition Law • Transportation • Public Procurements • Contentious Administrative Procedure • Urbanism Law • Real Estate • Information, communication law and image protection • Debt collection • Insolvency and bankruptcy

We are conducting a pioneering work in Romania in legal aspects involving information, communication and image protection, addressing this field from a multidisciplinary perspective, imposed by the nature of its uncommon sources. Thus, the legal advice and counseling that we offer are addressing:

I. In reference to the right to access information, relation arising from / relating to the obligations of public authorities/ private businesses to provide access to information, free access to public information, protection of personal data.

II. In reference to the freedom of communication, relations arising from / relating to: the obligation to communicate, print media, telecommunication law (spoken Press, TV Press, new technologies), advertising, freedom of public speech, book, theater, cinema, election campaigns, enterprise communication).

III. In reference to image rights, relations arising from / relating to: the right to self-identity and image, the right to dignity, honor and reputation.

By efficiently optimizing the legal activities performed in any company a real benefit is brought to the development of the business, and, by these means, the management of our clients' company is perfectly and properly informed of all the legal consequences resulted from the decisions taken in administration of the company.

The outsourcing of the legal services necessary to your company offers, among others, high performance of the provided services, cost reduction, efficient material resource allocation for the legal support, the promptness and transparency of working with our lawyers.

Legal services are performed by professionals of the law, with a wide experience in various legal matters, inaccessible to a salaried personnel; indirectly, the client benefits from the infrastructure of the law firm, which has dedicated personnel for administrative activities, prior research, delivery to institutions and authorities or courts, etc.

Outsourcing legal services.

Advantages for the clients

- HIGH QUALITY LEGAL SERVICES, PROVIDED BY PROFESSIONALS OF THE LAW
- COST REDUCTION FOR THE CLIENTS' COMPANY
- EFFICIENT RESOURCE ALLOCATION
- EASY ACCESS TO EXTERNAL MARKETS
- REDUCED FEES APPLIED TO SERVICES WHICH ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THE AGREEMENT

The client is always assisted/ represented by partner lawyers of our firm, with a wide experience in practicing law; our firm does not practice the delegation of the legal activities towards the associate lawyers.

As a principle, we apply a preventing conduct in relation to disputes, ensuring the legal character of our clients' company and proper information regarding the content, risks and costs of a given legal relation.

The costs for the outsourced legal services are, generally, smaller than the same costs supported by the client for a legal department (even a department which consists of a diminished number of employees).

The fees proposed by our firm are reasonable and include all the expenses necessary for the development of legal counseling, assistance and representation activities; the client only owes the fees required for the legal services effectively rendered and not for other preliminary, preparatory, informative or communicative activities.

LEGAL COUNSELING, ASSISTANCE, REPRESENTATION IN NEGOTIATIONS AND LITIGATIONS IN PRIVATE AND PUBLIC, NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

COLLABORATION

Professionalism • Transparency • Promptness

The outsourced legal services are conducted by professionals of the law, with a wide practical experience in various matters of the law regarding the establishment of legal status and activity of companies, execution of specific legal relations.

The collaboration is concluded through a legal assistance framework agreement, subscription type, in which all the conditions negotiated by the parties shall be established.

In all cases, the client completely preserves the option to choose the services of our law firm (the agreement is non-exclusive); the client can, also, require an estimation of the number of hours allocated for the execution of the requested services.

The legal services are promptly concluded, even in matter of hours, in the deadlines agreed with the client.

The communication with the companies' departments (financial, human resources, etc.) is conducted in proper conditions, based on functional working procedures, experimented by our law firm.

In our opinion, there is an inseparable connection between the legal counseling and assistance of the company and the promotion and growth of the business.

Our law firm actively supports the initiation and development of our clients' businesses, by ensuring the immediate legal support and by providing the available information and contacts.

Business development for our client.

Investment opportunities

- Legal advice on legal relations governed by international law.
- Legal assistance and representation in negotiations or litigations with external partners.
- Enhancing investment opportunities in Romania and abroad, in accordance with the applicable law.
- Ensuring the rights of our clients through specific means of guarantee.

The extension of our activity in the European Union, in the Republic of Moldova and also in Asia, mostly in China and Thailand, offers our partners the opportunity to explore new markets. Our firm also ensures, in this direction, full legal and logistic support.

Our foreign clients with interests in Romania are equally interested in concluding partnerships with Romanian companies, both in industrial, agricultural or service sector projects and, also, in the sensitive domain of public procurement.

In the litigious area of corporate international law, we provide our services of conciliation or, alternatively, assistance and representation in front of arbitration courts, especially in arbitration courts organized by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Romania and the International Chamber of Commerce from Paris.

Our firm is currently working in English, French, Italian and Romanian; we can also operate in German, Russian, Spanish and Chinese

EUROPEAN FUNDS

Production ■ Energy ■ Research & Development ■ Agriculture

The European post accession funds (2007- 2013) or structural and cohesion funds are financial instruments through which the European Union acts for eliminating the economic and social disparities between regions, with the purpose of creating economic and social cohesion.

It is necessary that the financing application be concluded after rigorously verifying and analyzing the eligibility criteria of the applicant and of the project, the applicable legislation and all the necessary conditions.

The legal and fiscal documents submitted together with the financing application must be valid from the deposit date and must prove exact compliance with the imposed requirements.

WWW.BS-PARTNERS.RO

BUCHAREST, ROMANIA

3 Splaiul Independenței,
bld. 17/1, ap. 21,
5th District, 040011

TEL: (+4) 031 435 4353

(+4) 0722 911 101

FAX: (+4) 021 781 4479

MAIL: office@bs-partners.ro

BEIJING, CHINA

TEL: (+86) 18210351445

MAIL: ciprian.radavoi@bs-partners.ro

ROME, ITALY

TEL: (+39) 3389129465

MAIL: simina.huma@bs-partners.ro